Take the kissing gate into the field, following the footpath along the right side of the field. Go through another kissing gate, and through the left metal gate and go straight across the next field, and through a gateway. Keeping field hedge ahead of you on the right, walk along to the corner by the road, then over stile into Rimes Lane. Turn right along road; at the T-junction turn right onto Church Brook; following the road until a T-junction. Turn right onto Church Road, uphill past St Peter's Church, Tadley, and cemetery on right.

To visit the pub, take this option:

Turn left immediately in front of this gate (the way marker sign is on other side of post). Carry on along woodland track between hedgerows, later passing under power cables, to gravel track and straight on to road, turn
