Ramsdell and Ewhurst

Approximate time 2 – 2 1/2 hours

Map reference 589574 at start of the walk.

If arriving by car, at the crossroads by Ramsdell Church take the road towards Charter Alley and almost immediately on the left is a lay-by (before the pillar box and phone box).

At the church end of the lay-by is the start of a path between two hedges with a green FP sign. The path then turns to the left around the edge of a field to a stile. At the waymark sign head diagonally across the field towards the centre of the cottages in the distance, keeping the pylon on the left. Stile with a green finger post leads onto a metalled lane.

Turn left and walk to the T junction about 200m then turn right and very soon left into Old Vyne Lane. Continue along gravelled lane and turn left at thatched cottage. In the field keep the ditch and hedge to the right and go through a gap in the hedge to join Hollybush Lane which is an unmade track. Turn left along the lane to join Baughurst Road at Stoney Heath.

Turn left on the metalled road for approximately 200m until reaching a grass triangle on the right-hand side of the road. Turn in by the triangle onto a gravelled track and then turn left just before the bridge. Continue on through meadow and copse with Ewhurst Pond on the right for approximately 1km emerging onto Lloyds Lane, a metalled road.

Turn right along the road, noticing Ewhurst House up on the right, a former home of the Duke of Wellington. Continue along to the lodge on the right and a footpath sign on the opposite side of the road take this path which leads up onto the hill and after approximately 250m there is a gate ahead.

This point is close by the site of a roman villa and there are some lovely views from here.
